Inverter's VA rating X usage time (in hours) / input voltage = Battery size. Now, let's say you wish to use a 500 VA inverter for 6 hours backup, the required battery size can be calculated as follows: $500 \text{ VA} \times 6 \text{ hours} = 3,000 \text{ VAh}$. Battery size of capacity is usually represented in Ah value. This represents how much energy can a battery store.
